KEY POINTS

When used, the RCE logo should be used as an integral logo; it must be used in its entirety and cannot be broken into its constituent parts.

ACKNOWLEDGED BY

The RCE logo must also be used in accordance with UN rules and regulations.

RCEs are also encouraged to develop and use their own logos to promote their activities, events, and outputs.

GUIDELINES: COLOUR

THE RCE LOGO HAS TWO COLOUR VERSIONS:

(a) transparent colour

(b) transparent white

GUIDELINES: PLACEMENT & SIZE

ONE LOGO

The RCE logo should be used as an integral logo and should not be broken into its constituent parts. In other words, the RCE logo cannot be altered under any circumstances.

IMAGERY

If the RCE logo will be used on a page with other images, make sure that these images are appropriate visuals and do not in any way reflect negatively on the network.

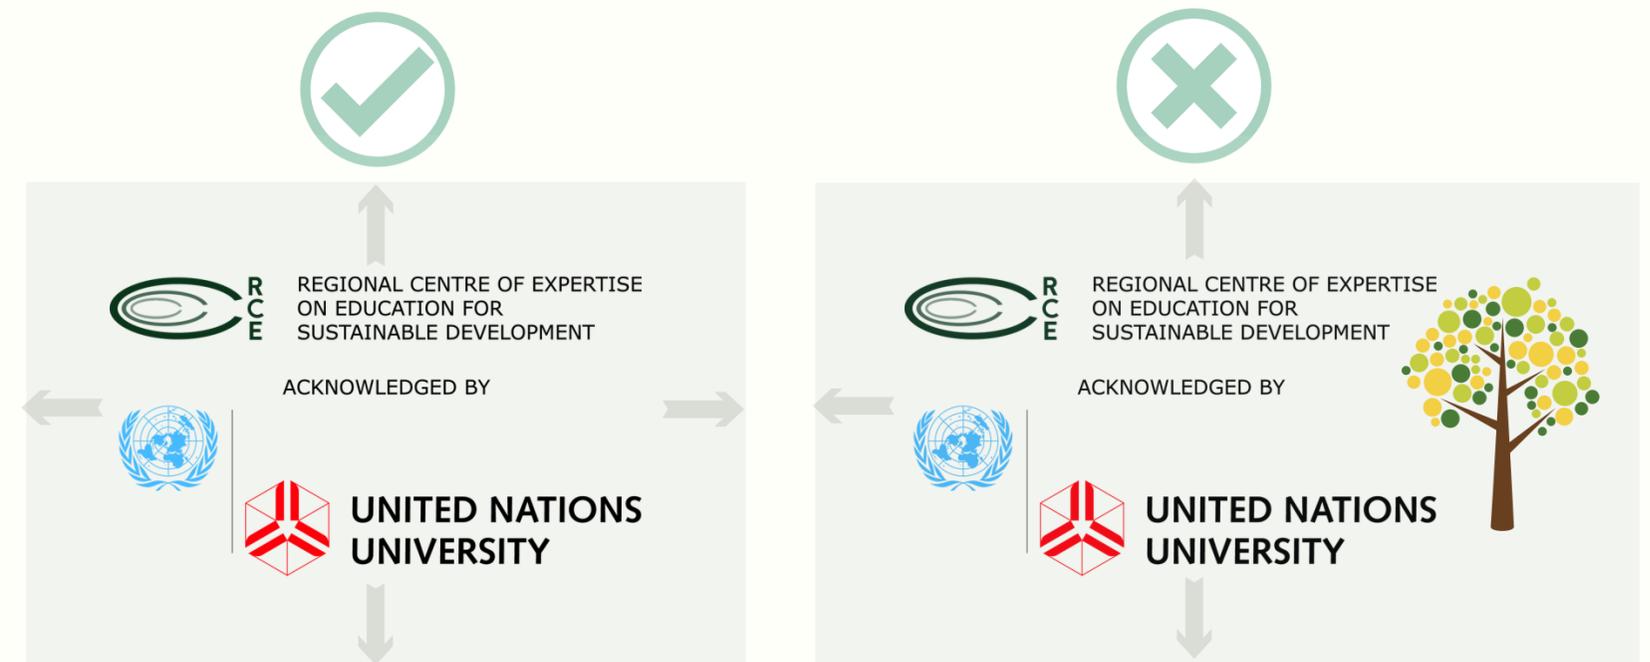

SIZING

When the RCE logo appears with another logo, the RCE logo must be reproduced at the same size (if not larger) than the other logo. In no case should another logo be reproduced larger than the RCE logo.

GUIDELINES: EXCLUSION ZONE & CHANGES

The RCE logo is protected by an invisible exclusion zone where no graphic material other than the background should appear. This is to ensure that the logo remains free from visual interference and stands out clearly.

The correct logo artwork must always be used without any modifications or additions. The original proportions must always be retained when resizing the logo to avoid distorting the image.

USE OF RCE NAME

The RCE Name is to be used in its full form as given in the official RCE application. When the abbreviation 'RCE' is expanded, it must be written as 'Regional Centre of Expertise on Education for Sustainable Development'. No abbreviations or additions such as 'UNU' are to be used in conjunction with the official RCE name (as it stands in its entity) in any documents and media outlets.

When referring to acknowledgement, note 'UNU' or 'United Nations University' applies (NOT 'UN' or 'United Nations').

SOCIAL MEDIA USAGE

Social media is changing the way we work, the way we engage and the way we communicate.

INTRODUCTION

There has never been a time where there has been as wide a variety of social media platforms as there is today. With the number of options out there, it is important to consider which platforms are useful for your RCE to have a presence on.

It is important to remember that the use of social media within the RCE Network should enhance and build stronger and closer relationships with our stakeholders and audience.

SOCIAL MEDIA GUIDELINES

Members of the Global RCE Network are asked to follow these guidelines on all social media platforms:

- Be respectful and considerate, and subscribe to the values in the UN Charter and related UN documents on human rights and dignity.
- Be transparent, authentic, and truthful.
- Think before you post.
- Add value: if you wish to engage in a conversation, make it helpful and thought-provoking.
- Do not reveal classified or confidential information, make sure when sharing content that the information does not fall under any of these categories.
- Credit pictures and sources where necessary and appropriately.
- If you make a mistake: admit it and apologise.

Moderation & Responsibilities

- MODERATION BY RCE COORDINATORS: Any social media pages related to RCEs should be monitored and moderated by RCE coordinators for the content of the posts published on those pages. If this task is delegated, RCE coordinators are still responsible for the content on their social media pages.
- ENSURE CONTENT IS APPROPRIATE: While participation is strongly encouraged, please remember the following rule: the Good, the Bad, but not the Ugly. If content is positive or negative but related to the context it could be deemed appropriate, but if the content is ugly, offensive, inappropriate, false, repetitive, inaccurate, or out of context, the Secretariat will use its right of moderation and remove the content.
- ABIDE BY THE RULES: Failure to abide by these guidelines could result in being excluded from the communities. Please also ensure that the terms and conditions of any third-party sites are followed when using them.

OVERVIEW

Date Of RCE Acknowledgement:
December, 2017

Description Of RCE And Geographic Region:
Hangzhou, which is one of the cradles of Chinese Civilization and one of the most active centres of economic development in China, has a long history. The natural environment of Hangzhou includes rivers, streams, lakes and mountains. As the structure of populations transform and the development of urban culture diversifies, Hangzhou is an emerging international city now.

RCE Hangzhou is an open and parallel organization with diverse participation. It integrates resources, knowledge, and experience from all members so that they can contribute to the efficient functioning of the RCE. Moreover, we plan to send out invitations to different social circles so that we are better able to collaborate on future projects. The RCE Committee and the Secretariat will be given responsibility for exploration, policy making, and coordination. These responsibilities will include exploring new resources, developing projects, seeking additional funding, and making policy. The organization will also establish a transparent and trustworthy framework to ensure equality, fairness, diversity, and cooperation among all members of the RCE.
