

Trang City Municipality

Bye Eve and welcome new year

"Meet each other at Trang Clock Tower"

City Landmark that never miss!

History Of Trang Clock Tower

"Tup Thiang", the meeting point of Trang's people, is an important landmark which is a large beautiful clock tower. It's so elegant that people who want to meet, especially Trang people, often say, "See you at Hor Nah Kah". The Clock Tower is located in the middle of the intersection near the provincial government center. It can be seen clearly from all directions. In addition, at the Clock Tower intersection, there was a Trang City Municipality News Broadcast which was wood structure built in the period of Mr. Thun Onsanit, (the mayor of the third time between 1882 - 1944). Local people call it "Sao Laeng Tai". The municipality would regularly broadcast radio news in the morning and evening to people. Local People would gather to listen to the news and criticize the situation of the country together. In 1911, Trang Municipality by Mr. Yanyong Winothai rebuilt the clock tower instead which was 15 meters high with a six-meter diameter base of different level of area. Later, in 1996, the municipality installed a mobile text computer system. It caused a different shape. Later, in 2005, the municipality improved again by removing the mobile text computer system. The clock tower was returned to the original structure. Although the Clock Tower of Trang was changed several times, it's still beautiful in the traditional structure. Doubtlessly, this is the Landmark that is popular for people to take photos and visit the city because it is a classic architecture of the 60s. Trang Municipality will decorate the clock tower beautifully for festivals, such as New Year, Chinese New Year, Vegan, etc. and for tourists to check-in and take pictures with outstanding landmark of Trang that shines brightly.

New Year Festival held by Trang Municipality

New Year Festival is held at Trang City Clock Tower annually. There are a lot of Thai and foreign tourists from both local area and other provinces. At night of 31 December, everybody has the same aim to count down to the new era. It becomes a custom to all generations of Tup Tiang's people.

Trang Municipality gives happiness for New Year Festival 2023 in “Nakorn Trang Countdown 2023” At the Clock Tower Intersection

 31 December 2022, Dr. Sanya Sriwichian the mayor of Trang Municipality with administrators, chiefs, and Trang Municipality Personnel gathered and gave happiness in Nakorn Trang Countdown 2023. They decorated beautiful lights and held many activities for Nakorn Trang Countdown 2023, Random Dance 2023, Running cross-over year Trang City 2023, World-saving Group, Thai traditional dance, and various product and food booths in colorful happy night for New Year Festival 2023. These made all tourists impressed and fantastic on Trang visit.

It is a way to support tourism and economics for people to have more income. It was happiness of local people and tourists. Besides, It also opened a chance for kids and youth to perform in the right way. It is promotion co-operation of government, private section and people. Tourists would like to visit Trang again. It increases competition potential and support economics on tradition culture and local lives of Trang to sustainable development.