RCE ESD EAST KALIMANTAN: At Glance

Regional Centre of Expertise on Education for Sustainable development
Network organization on formal, non-formal and informal education on Education for Sustainable Development.

Part of Global RCE under UNU-IAS Japan as a respond of UNU on UN Resolution that 2004-2014 is designated as Decade of ESD

Specifically to respond issues in East Kalimantan on:
- Poverty
- Degraded environment
- Quality of Education
Important Issue of RCE

- Government
  - To address management and leadership of RCE

- Collaboration
  - To respond stakeholders involvement at all level of formal, non formal and informal education

- Research and Development
  - To address the role of research on RCE and contribute to strategic design for collaboration.

- Transformative Education
  - To contribute to transformative education and training system to address local need on sustainable life.
• GOVERNMENT
  – PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT
  – DISTRICTS AND CITIES IN E. KALIMANTAN
  – EDUCATION SERVICES IN E. KALIMANTAN
  – ENVIRONMENTAL SERVICES IN E. KALIMANTAN

• HIGHER EDUCATION
  – MULAWARMAN UNIVERSITY
  – STAIN SAMARINDA
  – IKIP PGRI SAMARINDA
  – UNTAG SAMARINDA
  – POLTEK SAMARINDA

• SCHOOLS
  – TK/SD/SMP/SMA SE KALTIM

• NGO AND RELIGIOUS ORGANIZATION
  – LSM LINGKUNGAN
  – BIIS
  – NU, MUHAMMADIYAH, DAN KWI

• PRIVATE SECTOR AND INDUSTRIES
  – KPC
  – PKT
  – INDOMINCO

• LOCAL LEADERS
Vision

To provide “global space learning” for community to learn and share experiences on implementation of ESD from international to local community or vice versa.
Objective

Long term objective is to develop capacity on sustainable society. While other objectives include:

1. To develop partnership on capacity building in RCE and ESD concept;
2. To develop promotional system for ESD to increase public awareness on sustainable development;
3. To coordinate events to promote synergy among different actors, network building, and education activities related to sustainable development;
4. To develop individual capacity, with focus on communities and institutions to implant education on sustainable development;
5. To support coordination and dissemination on policy, research and practice related to education for sustainable development.
Activities

• Promotion, collaboration, and join research on ESD;
• Expert exchange of ESD;
• Organize seminar and workshop on ESD;
• To establish “green School/University “; and “Home Reading Programme”
• Action program on ESD;
• Teachers training and
• Support institution and community in curriculum development and pedagogic to help citizen and students to develop skill and knowledge needed for living and working sustainably.
History

- Mid July 2008 proposal for the establishment was submitted to UNU-IAS to be presented to the committee “ubuntu alliance” consist of world experts on ESD and Diplomat at the UN.
- November 2008 proposal of RCE East Kalimantan accepted and approved with no reservation by the committee ubuntu alliance
- Established as the third RCE in Indonesia after Bogor (IPB/BIOTROP) and Yogyakarta (UGM)
World Participation of RCE East Kalimantan

• II Int. Conf. RCE in Penang (2007)
• III Int. Conf. RCE in Barcelona (2008)
• IV Int. Conf. RCE in Montreal (2009)
• V Int. Conf. RCE in Brazil (2010)
• APRCE meeting in India (2010)
• APEID UNESCO Con. on Non formal Ed, Bangkok (2010)
• Intr. On Traditional Herb, Bangalore (2010)
• AP Meeting Yogyakarta, (2011)
• AP Continental Conference 2 of November 2011.
Team RCE Kaltim:

  Eko Ernada
  Andi Purnawarman
  Dwi Nugroho
  Ida Farida
  Petrus Gunarso (newly join)