

4th Asia Pacific RCEs Conference
Session 5-6

- GroupA : China, Japan, Korea
- GroupB : Thailand, Cambodia, Vietnam
- GroupC : Malaysia, Indonesia, the Philippines, the Pacific
- GroupD : India, Kyrkygzstan, Uzbekistan

Discussion 1

- Disaster Resilience & ESD
  - What individual RCE/ RCE network can do to strengthen disaster resilience?
    1. Providing education for disaster
    2. Monitoring and evaluation, R&D
    3. Early Warning Plan
    4. Evacuation Plan
    5. Rehabilitation Plan
    6. Partnership and Network Plan

Discussion 2 : Sub-regional RCEs Network

- What ESD Network exist in your region? How to strengthen ties?
- Cooperate with Stakeholders with Institution and Education Part, Local Government.
- Raising awareness, Education, Participation, Capacity building, Knowledge and Information through workshop, seminar, field study and different kinds of medias

How to develop sub-regional group ?

- Networking through Exchange program through website
- Organizing the workshop, seminar
- Sharing the best practice
- Psychologically
- Establishing the forum
- Culture exchange
- Indicators of Success
- Public relation through publication and mass media
- Communication with GO, NGOs,

Discussion 3: Moving forward- Strengthening Asia Pacific Network

- Achievement & Challenges of AP RCE network
- Influence the policy level to the government to arrange the workshop about the environmental
- Education in formal and informal
- Establish database on the work of RCE through website

- Effective inter-RCE Communication: Is it easy to communicate with each other?
- Should improve website and also share the best practice
- More support to RCE member to participate
- RCE-UNE should formulate the foundation to raise fund for support RCE-ESD to implement the activities
- To extend the DESD decade

Future road map : What we can do together

6th Global RCEs Conference

Rio+20

2014 End of DESD

- Partnership program on R&D
- Promote the best practice such as award from U
NU